Accent Equity divests its holding in AR Packaging to CVC Capital Partners

Accent Equity has announced today that it has signed a binding agreement to divest its 35% holding in AR Packaging Group AB (“AR Packaging”) to funds advised by CVC Capital Partners (“CVC”). Under the terms of the transaction, the current owners Accent Equity and Ahlstrom Capital will sell 100% of the company to CVC.

AR Packaging was founded in 2011 through the merger of A&R Carton and Flextrus, and is now one of Europe’s leading packaging companies with sales of approximately €560 million (pro forma 2015) and 2,200 employees across 17 factories in 9 countries. The company has performed strongly in recent years, posting a 27% increase in net sales last year.

Jan Ohlsson, chairman and founder of Accent Equity Partners AB, investment advisor to Accent Equity, said: “We would like to thank the employees and management team of AR Packaging for a close and productive cooperation over the past years. The company is now well placed to continue its expansion and we wish them every success as they continue their journey with CVC.”

The completion of the transaction is subject to customary regulatory clearances.

Accent Equity was advised by SEB Corporate Finance, Roschier, Boston Consulting Group and PwC.
