Accent Equity awarded gold trophy for Best Nordic LBO Fund 2013

On November 14, 2013, organized by Leaders League, the 12th edition of the Private Exchange & Awards gathered over 1,200 participants in Paris for an interactive full-day session that culminated with the presentation of awards for the most outstanding global Limited Partners, Funds and Management Teams for their successful results, their management skills and long-term strategy.

Accent Equity was awarded the golden trophy in the category Best Nordic LBO Fund 2013. 70 high-profile Private Equity experts from Institutional Investment firms, Asset Management companies and specialized Banks elected the gold award winners of each award category.

“Accent Equity Funds are delighted to receive such a prestigious award, especially for the acknowledgement of their long-term strategy,” commented Ian Lambert, Chairman of the Accent Equity Funds. “Accent Equity Funds have invested for 20 years in the Nordic lower mid-market and their ambition is to play an active role in this market for at least the next 20 years as well.”
